MARINER

The background is a solid grey color. It is decorated with several large, white, stylized stars of varying sizes. Some of these stars have black outlines. Interspersed among the stars are several white circles of different diameters. Some of these circles have a black outline and a small, hand-drawn black 'X' or crosshair in the center. The overall effect is a festive, celestial theme.

DEDICATION

We, the Senior Class of 1968, dedicate our yearbook to Mr. William Wasulko, who has taught at Harbor for the past nine years.

As athletic director, coach, and teacher, Mr. Wasulko combines ability and learning with a dry wit and an infectious laugh.

We may not remember all the math he tried to teach us, but we will recall his wit and humor. Though we may not be able to add $2+2$ without counting on our fingers, we can add $4B+2B$ (or not $2B$).

For both his teaching and his congenial personality we express our appreciation.

The pleasure received from the association with students like you of Harbor High School cannot be expressed in the few words written here.

You are or will be the graduates of Harbor, and for this you can be justly proud that you have contributed toward making yours the best school. Yours is a heritage and a tradition which came from the past, is furthered in the present, and will continue in the future. Remember these days, these associations, and these high standards of which you are a part. Take with you knowledge and understanding, molding them into wisdom making this the beginning of citizenship, leadership, and service to your community, country, and world. Congratulations and best wishes for continued success in the years to come.

Murray M. Blake
Principal

I have only been at Harbor High School a very short time, but as the year progressed I feel I got to know the Class of 1968 quite well. I have but one message to relay to you graduates.

The person who longs to visit new places and taste novel experiences takes with him many mental mementos through which he compares, evaluates, and participates. I know your high school years at Harbor have been the most wonderful you could experience, but don't let them stop now. Continue to study, experience, learn, and to seek the realm of wealth and fortune that exists to all man, for a person who has had a cultural, well rounded, and broad heritage stands ready to give, share, and receive.

Take advantage of every opportunity society and the world has to offer, set your goals high, and don't be satisfied with anything but achieving those goals. Join those who have attained those ultimate goals, but remember--GIVE, SHARE, AND RECEIVE.

With this in mind, I extend my sincere congratulations to the class of '68.

THE CLASS OF 1968

The class of 1968 is the last class that attended Harbor High in the seventh grade, since the next year the seventh and eighth grades were sent to junior high schools. After tasting high school life, we found it hard to adjust to eighth grade away from Harbor in the new junior high set-up. Anxiously we awaited our return as freshman.

Back at Harbor in the ninth grade we organized ourselves into a class by electing officers, the first of many such elections in which our class was to be involved. To raise money we held bake sales and a car wash.

As sophomores we were for the first time upperclassmen. This new confidence showed itself especially in the interclass basketball tournaments. We walked away with most of the honors, including "girls' champion team" and "most enthusiastic class." By holding more bake sales, the traditional bottle drive, and the car wash before the prom, we added to our treasury. Through all these activities ran the daily schedule of our classes.

In our junior year we added to our list of achievements. We put on our class play "Time Out for Ginger;" we held a very successful candy drive; we again took many of the honors at the basketball tournaments; and we donated the largest sum of any class to the United Appeal Drive. Our enthusiasm and spirit infected the whole school.

Although we were kept busy with school work and activities, we never forgot the prom we were going to put on in the spring. The Prom Committee started making plans the summer before and continued meeting almost every Sunday throughout the year.

As May drew near, those with the most responsibility started panicking, wondering whether things would go as planned. But once more, our class united and worked together; and as the week of construction progressed, those of us who could spare a minute to look saw arbors taking shape, gardens springing up, wallpaper taking the place of brick, a white mansion rising--the whole being transformed into a Southern garden.

The final result surpassed even our expectations. The night of our prom will be one of the most beautiful memories we shall keep of our high school life.

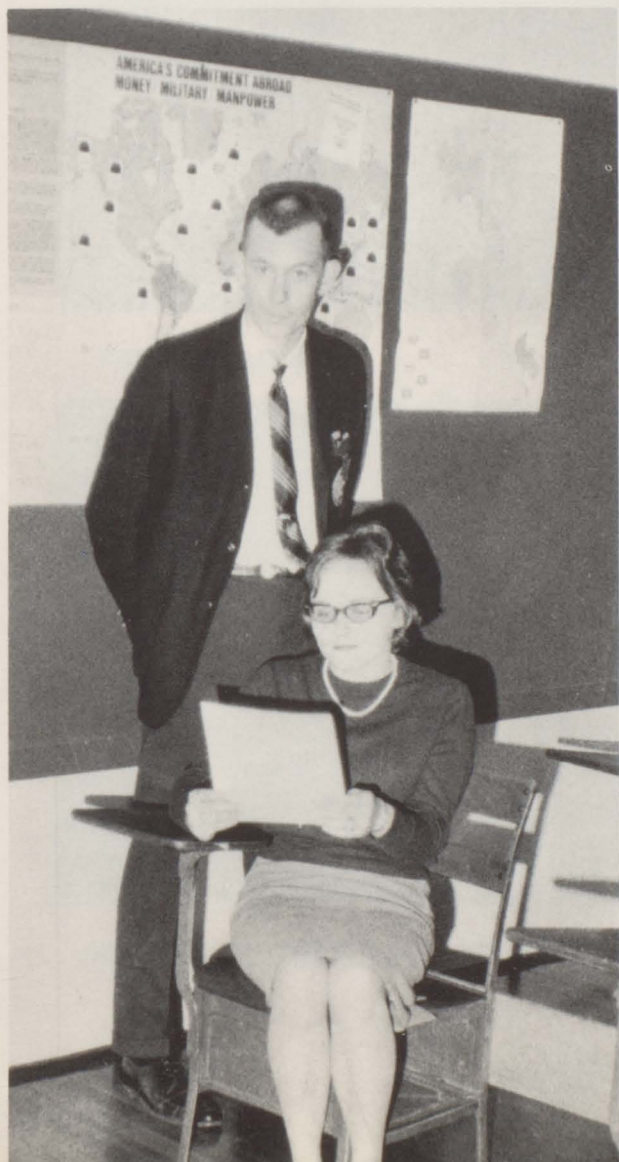

Our senior year finally arrived. No more looking up to seniors in awe, wondering what it was like to be at the top. We were there! Now our minds turned toward the future, toward graduation and what we would do after. Our time became filled with college entrance examinations, guidance meetings, ordering announcements and caps and gowns, filling out college applications.

Of course, there was the present to think of, too; our class's putting out the yearbook, class plays, assemblies. Seniors walked around school, groggy from lack of sleep, trying to keep things straight, "Act IV and V of MACBETH for tomorrow" . . . "Yearbook deadline the twenty-ninth" . . . "W=JQ" . . . "je me leve, tu te leve" . . . "We're voting on announcements tomorrow" . . . " $\sin(A+B) = \sin A \cos B + \cos A \sin B$ " . . . "I lost my lunch ticket . . ."

At last graduation neared. Looking back, we remembered paraphrasing ROMEO AND JULIET, the record "Run, Baby, Run," hearing, "Butyric acid! Stay away from me," repeating s-i-l-h-o-u-e-t-t-e. We remember the hard work, the fun, the many friends we made, the pride we showed in our school.

We also realized the dedication our teachers and administrators had exhibited, as they spent much of their lives preparing us, seniors and underclassmen, for ours. We thank them for that.

As we leave Harbor, we would like to leave a message for the students who follow us. We hope that you will show by your actions and spirit, as we have done, that "Happiness is Harbor High School!"

The Senior Class advisers are Mr. David O'Dell and Mrs. Karen Robinson.

IN MEMORIAM

Two boys, Mark Sheldon and Gary Beckwith, who were our classmates for many years, will not graduate with us actually; but we want to remember here that they were members of our class, whom many of us knew and fondly remember.

The few people who were close to Gary Beckwith knew his humor and wit. Although he was quiet, laughter and happiness surrounded him.

As Mark Sheldon passed away during sixth grade, many of our class did not know him. Those of us who did know him recall him as an active boy who never seemed to run out of energy. We will never forget him.

The Juniors worked long and hard hours making money for the Prom they put on for the seniors. One could rarely escape a week without hearing the familiar announcement, "There will be a Prom committee meeting this . . .", or without being asked to buy a candy bar.

The Juniors also sold mums before Homecoming. Instead of putting on the annual Junior Class play, members had a chance to perform in two junior-senior productions.

HAPPINESS

IS OUR

A.F.S.

STUDENT

ANG

Harbor's exchange student for 1967-68 was Angel Manuel Villalba G. He lives with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernesto Villalba, in Asuncion, Paraguay. Ang has five brothers and five sisters.

During his stay in America Ang lived with Mr. and Mrs. Donald F. Scott and their son, Don, a senior at Harbor. Don's sister, Suzanne, is a junior at Kent State University. Commenting on Ang, Don said, "He's cool! He's the best brother I ever had."

At home Ang was president of his class and belonged to several clubs. He was on his class soccer and basketball teams. His hobbies are watching movies, reading, dancing, and playing chess.

At Harbor Ang was treasurer of the French Club, a member of the National Thespians and American Field Service. He also played on the football team.

1967-68

Asked how he felt when he first arrived in the United States, Ang laughed, "Oh, great! I was curious."

Referring to the people -- "Before I came here, I thought it was very different, but it isn't different. It's almost the same."

About Ashtabula -- "I like it because in my town all the houses are brick, and we don't have yards. Here you don't have the limit of a wall, and you can see the houses."

Ang commented that teenagers in Paraguay talk more about international affairs than we do. He also noticed that American girls are freer and can go places alone; in Paraguay they are always accompanied by a chaperon.

When Ang returns home, he plans to study engineering at the National University.

N.H.S.

To become a member of the National Honor Society, a student must show outstanding qualities of scholarship, leadership, character, and service.

This year a fall and spring induction were held. The society sponsored Bermuda Day to pay for the pins given to new members. The organization also set up a tutoring program for students. Not pictured is Miss Eleanor Tilton, adviser.

Officers are Lynn Kotila, president; Sandy Lauterbach, vice-president; Joann Alpine, secretary; and Kurt Miller, treasurer. Mr. Wilbert Willey is adviser.

Quill and Scroll

International Honoray Society for High School Journalists

The Quill and Scroll is an honorary literary organization aimed at promoting good writing. Miss Mary Boyce is the adviser of the group.

To become a member of the Quill and Scroll, a student must make an outstanding contribution to the school yearbook or newspaper. He must also be a junior or senior and rank in the top third of his class.

New members are taken into the organization at a formal initiation, a candlelight ceremony where they receive pins denoting membership in the club.

IT'S ACADEMIC

Fifteen seniors were chosen by a faculty committee to travel to Cleveland for It's Academic try-outs. On the basis of quick, accurate answers at the try-outs and general knowledge of the students' ability, the committee chose six of those fifteen to compete on television: Janis Wisnyai (captain), Jim Greenawalt, Kurt Miller, Scott Shellhammer, Wally Good, Mark Andrews.

The six contestants practiced once a week for about five weeks. First, the team practiced on general questions; then they used more specific ones. The members were advised to read more. Mr. Carnabuci rigged up a buzzer system in the physics lab in order to familiarize the team with its use. The last week before taping, the contestants went through a trial run, simulating as nearly as possible the actual contest. Robert Huff drilled them.

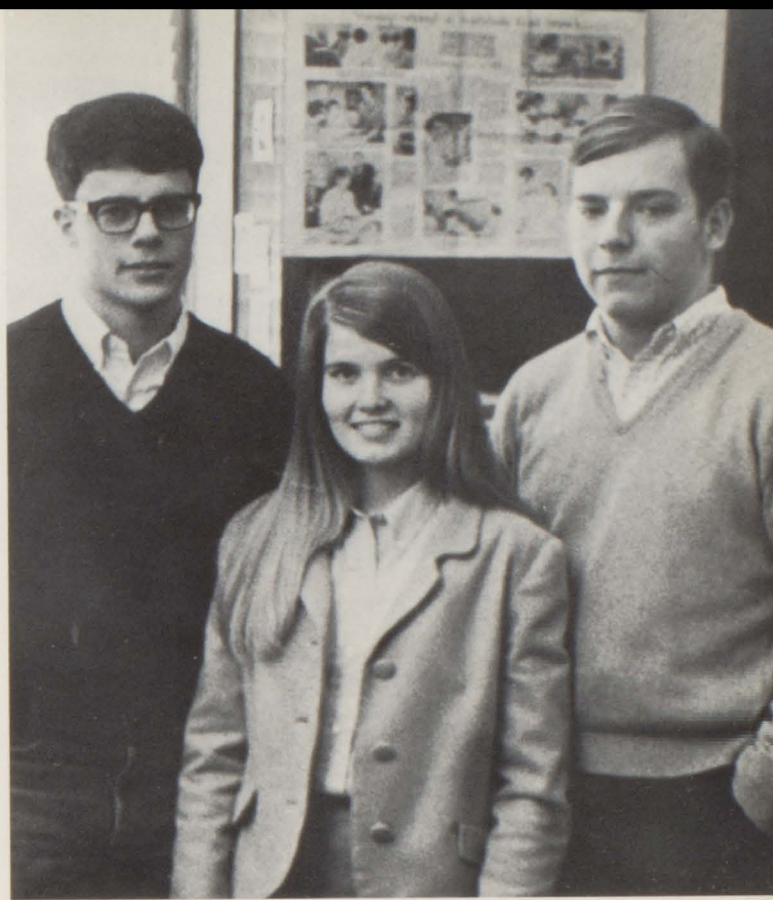

The team was accompanied to Cleveland by several members of the faculty, friends and relatives of the team members, and several members of the senior class.

Harbor competed against Hebrew Academy-Yavne and John Adams High School. The first two rounds, Harbor was tied with one of the other schools. The third round Harbor moved ahead. In the grab-bag round Harbor and John Adams gained points until on the last question, which John Adams was answering, a correct answer could bring both teams to a tie once more. The audience waited breathlessly to hear John Adam's answer. It was incorrect, leaving Harbor the winner!

On the way home the team and its supporters stopped for a celebration.

HOMECOMING

Queen, Nancy Short

Homecoming week opened with the presentation in a student assembly of the six candidates--Christine Bent, Deborah Edwards, Candy Lehtonen, Joanne Robinson, Dorothy Serzynski, and Nancy Short--nominated by the seniors. Excitement mounted during their campaign up to the moment the ballots were cast.

Escorts--Mark Andrews, David Cunningham, Gary Jokiniemi, Charles Notarianni, Don Scott, and Scott Shellhammer--drove the girls onto the field before the Harbor--Conneaut game Friday. As the lights dimmed, Nancy Short was announced Homecoming Queen for 1967. Craig Myllymaki, representing the football team, crowned her; and Principal Murray Blake presented her with yellow roses tied with purple ribbon.

Afterward Nancy and her court watched the game from reserved seats.

Making the evening a complete success, Harbor won, 26-6. Saturday evening at the Homecoming Dance, sponsored by the Senior Girls, Nancy was officially crowned by Mark Andrews, Student Council president.

HAPPINESS

ACTIVITIES

No, thank you. I don't drink!

Haven't I met you somewhere before?

RETURN TO TARA

Southern belles and gentlemen stepping into the dining room of a plantation house--this was the beginning of "Return to Tara." Passing through the doorway of the lobby, the guests were able to see the results of a long year of planning and a too-short, hectic week of construction.

The gym lobby was wall-papered and carpeted to transform it into a Southern dining room. A fireplace and colonial furniture gave a homey feeling to the setting.

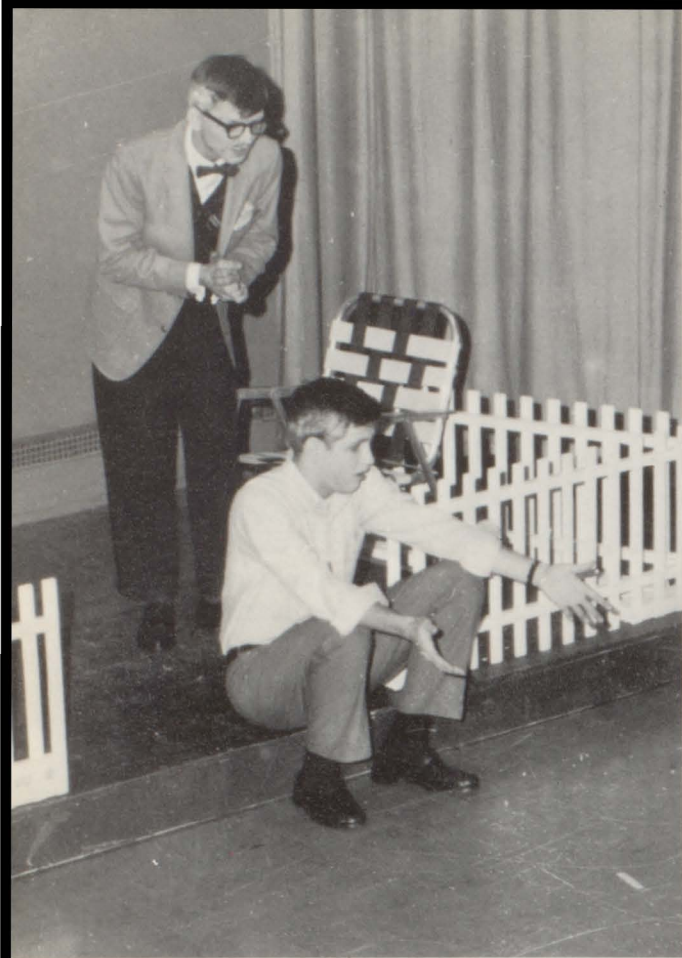

Entering the gym, the couples stepped onto the veranda of a white, pillared Southern mansion. Before them stretched an enchanting Southern garden with an ivy-covered arbor, two lighted fountains, a gazebo serving as a bandstand, and a slave shack used for a coat check room. Two painted river scenes on the south and east walls added to the beauty of the garden. Long-stemmed red roses decorated each table.

Tony Esposito and his orchestra provided the music for the prom. Terry Rill and Vicky Schminky were crowned King and Queen of the night.

At midnight the after-prom party erupted with the arrival of the Volcanics, who played until the early morning. "Return to Tara" was then "gone with the wind."

Now I know how the Jolly Green Giant feels!

“DAMN YANKEES”

DAMN YANKEES, a musical comedy in two acts, was presented to large and appreciative audiences by Harbor's junior and senior classes, Nov. 17 and 18, in the Harbor auditorium.

Miss Betty Jean O'Dell, director, was assisted by Miss Sue Sanner and Marcia Carroll. After the performance on Saturday night Miss O'Dell, Miss Sanner, and Marcia Carroll were presented with white, red, and pink roses respectively.

At the after play party, which was held at Nancy Short's house, the cast gave Miss O'Dell a pair of pearl earrings in a small jewelry box.

The cast of 57 was headed by Paul Callihan as Joe, Crena Willey as Meg, Fred Schroeder as Applegate, and Meg Sheppard as Lola. Others with speaking roles were Brenny Watt, Sister; Judy Huggins, Doris; Wallace Good, Van Buren; Martha Shaul, Gloria; Don Scott, Welch; Richard Weiner, Lynch; Amy Peterson, Miss Weston; Greg Zannelli, Commissioner; and John Bordeaux, Postmaster.

In the women's chorus were Sharon Brunell, Cathy Cameron, Pat Gordon, Susan Hastings, Rebecca Labry, Patricia Labry, Pat McCormick, Barbara Perry, Patty Piper, Nancy Short, Pat Strausser, and Lynn Updegraff.

Dancers were Annette Barnes, Becky Burnett, Betsy Davey, Paige DeHelian, Kathy Matson, Sheryl Nappi, Heidi Regner, and Linda Valerio.

Baseball fans and teenagers were Annette Barnes, Janice Bond, Martha Bossley, Darla Campbell, Carol Kantorak, Sandy Lauterbach, Kathy Matson, Paula Plona, Pat Rexroad, Debbie Wakeman, and Cindy Ziegler.

Miss O'Dell, Nancy Short, and Wally Good worked out the choreography. Tom Napoletano, John Palm, and Jim Nappi were the stage crew.

require new plans different from the year before. Along with broken type-writers, lost pictures, and no school the week of the deadline because of snow, this can mean quite a hectic time for the staff.

Hopefully this 1968 Mariner has captured the past year for you, the students of Harbor. We hope you remember the fun and happiness, while we remember the work.

Cooperative Office Education provides intensive in-class training with actual work experience. Those participating attend conventions in Columbus and a conference in Cleveland.

VOCATIONAL CLUBS

Harbor's vocational training consists of three programs: Distributive Education, Cooperative Office Education, and Trades and Industries.

The Trades and Industries Program is composed of juniors and seniors under the direction of Sam Fiorenzo. It gives high school students exploratory experiences in such trades as machine shop, auto mechanics, auto body, electricity, and printing. Students who complete this program have an opportunity to become apprentices in the trade they studied.

Distributive Education aims to develop a respect for education in marketing and distribution which will contribute to vocational competence. It teaches an appreciation for the responsibilities of citizenship and our free competitive enterprise system.

FOOTBALL 1967

Having their finest season since 1962, Coach Jim Orr's football team marched to a 6-2-1 record. Led by the county's top scorer, Frank Enricco, the Seamen took second place in both the NEC and City Series.

In the first game of the season an inspired squad came from behind to beat Erie Strong Vincent. After losing a tough game to Fairport, they came back and soundly trounced Jefferson. Rated as the county's number one game of the season, the Ashtabula-Harbor game ended in a scoreless draw. The team lost for the last time of the season to St. John. An easy victory over Conneaut preceded a fine 6-0 win over Edgewood. The next week the Mariners thoroughly ground Geneva into the mud, paying off a debt from last year. In the last game of their high school football career the seniors led the team to a thrilling victory over Madison.

I didn't think the finish line was that far away!

The Harbor cross country squad, while suffering through a disappointing season, gained much experience for next year. While the team had a winless season, they provided good competition for their opponents.

Senior Ed Haight was the team's leading runner. Marc Nordquest, Gary Hoskins, and Dave Jordan provided good support.

Elmer Gray was the team's coach.

Baseball in 1967 was what Coach Dave O'Dell called a "building year". Although the pitchers were young and most of the team inexperienced, the team had a record of 6-8, one of the best records Harbor has seen in baseball.

Gary Kotila had the team's best pitching record with a 3-2 record. Terry Mohr was the leading hitter with an average of .424. Making the All-City team were Terry Mohr, Al Goodwin, and Dave Curry. Terry made the All-County team, as well as the All-NEC team along with Al Goodwin. Dave Curry was on the second All-NEC team.

Gee, maybe it'll go out of the infield this time?

The Harbor Varsity suffered a disappointing season, winding up with only one victory in eighteen games. After defeating Jefferson in the second game, the luckless Mariners fell to sixteen straight defeats. Even though their record doesn't show it, the squad members played their best, and with a few breaks, their record might have been different. Mark Andrews and Bob Millberg paced the team offensively, while Charlie Notarianni played outstanding defense.

The Junior Varsity had a record of 9--9. Outstanding players on the Junior Varsity were Jerry Runyan and Chris Robinson.

Peek-A-Boo!

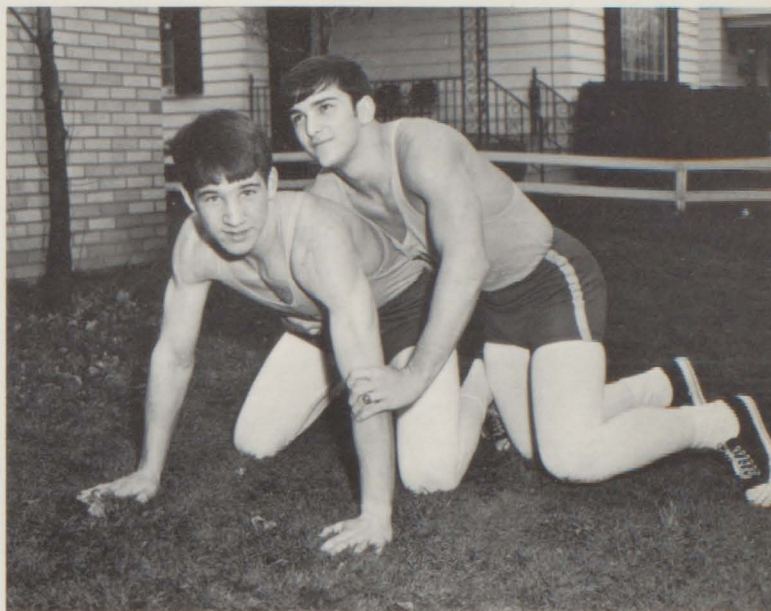

One, Two, Three--and we all fall down!

The Mariner wrestlers made tremendous progress in their second year of competition. Paced by the fine efforts of Al Calderone, Arvid Aartun, Dale Burns, Dale Theis, and Jim Agnew, the team made a fine showing in the Edgewood Tournament, finishing third. The team, coached by Mr. Candela, finished the season with a record of 2--5.

The Varsity Cheerleaders were a tremendous boost to the school this year. Besides cheering at football and basketball games, they conducted pep assemblies each week and kept the halls covered with signs urging Harbor on to victory. Helping them were the Freshman Cheerleaders who cheered at Freshman events and the Junior Varsity Cheerleaders who cheered at Junior Varsity basketball games.

The Graduation Gift That Nobody Ever Gets...

It's tops on the most-wanted list of every graduate, but no one ever gets it . . . not the rich . . . not the smart . . . not the swinging . . . not the cool.

That's because it can't be bought anywhere in your town or anywhere in the world for that matter. It has to come from inside you. It has to be earned the hard way, without help from your parents, your teachers, or your friends.

It's the ability to know what to do after the prom is over and the cap and gown have gone back to the rental service. It's the ability to make a decision about the army, or college, or a company that's going to help you amount to something.

Nobody ever said that knowing what to do is the simplest thing in the world. Nobody ever will. But they will tell you that the best choice is seldom the easiest one. They'll tell you that the right decision is often the one that takes careful planning, thinking and plain old guts when you get down to making it.

We hope that at this time you give your plans for the future at least the same amount of time you give to thoughts of the past. And if it's a career you decide upon, one that will give you a chance to prove your worth to yourself and a company, we hope you consider Reliance.

You see, we have confidence in you and your town. That's why we're here. Think it over, and let us know if we can help you pick out that decisive gift . . . from yourself.
